3 PM Bible Clubs: The club met on-line because of increased SARS-CoV-2 virus activity. The theme was “Peace,” one of the “Fruits of the Spirit” from Galatians 5. The example was Abigail, wife of Nabal. David’s men, having protected Nabal’s shepherds, requested provisions from Nabal, who refused. David and 400 men went to attack Nabal, but Abigail intervened carrying bread, wine, grain, meat, raisins and figs to David and his men. With this act of peace, David called off the attack. Nabal soon died, and David married Abigail.

Peace was further illustrated by a tree in a storm, and within the tree was a nest with baby birds protected by mother bird. The class also listened to a recording of “Let There be Peace on Earth”.

We are thankful for the moisture in the bountiful snow. Twenty-seven years in northern Virginia taught this couple to get out early to shovel the sidewalks.
